Ramon G. Corrales, Ph.D.
CEO, Corporate Mastery USA

September 30, 2010 9 a.m.—12 p.m.
Chiesman Center For Democracy
1641 Deadwood Avenue, Rapid City

Come and learn to live and lead from the 3rd Level of life.

Many of our employees operate rationally on a good day. When stress occurs, the vast majority of them slide down to the emotional level, become reactive, lose purpose and perspective, and act to defend or blame. Productivity goes down, stress goes up, and the waste of money and energy is staggering. Here's the clincher: YOU CAN LEAD PEOPLE TO THE RATIONAL LEVEL ONLY FROM THE 3rd LEVEL, not from the rational level.

Ramon Corrales is an Organizational, Relationship, and Personal Development Expert and Life Coach who works with artists, athletes, leaders and executives throughout the world. He has worked with top-tier companies like FedEx, Ernst & Young, Cap Gemini, Baccarat, Abbott Labs, Mead Johnson, CB Richard Ellis, Nueterra Healthcare, Child Health Corporation of America, Americo Insurance. Ramon has a knack for bringing out the best in people.
